Re: Vincent v. The Money Store, et al.
03 Civ. 2876 (JGK) (RLE)

Dear Judge Koeltl:

Plaintiffs yesterday (December 13) filed a motion styled "Motion for Reconsideration" of an Order entered by Judge Sprizzo on December 7, 2005. We think Plaintiffs are about five years too late in bringing on a motion for reconsideration.

In the event that this Court decides to entertain such a motion, we respectfully request that Defendants' time to file answering papers be extended from December 27 to January 31. We are presently working on the summary judgment motions and I will be away from the office for the latter part of this month and the beginning of next month. Plaintiffs' Counsel (Mr. Grobman) consents to this extension. In turn, if this Court decides to entertain such a motion and grants our request for an extension, we have agreed that Mr. Grobman's time to reply will be extended to February 10.

Respectfully,

Daniel A. Pollack
